Amendments

❖ For Examination Regulations of Four-year B.A./B.Sc. (Honours and Honours with Research) Courses of Studies (CSR/45/2023, dt. 18.12.2023):

Clause no. 13 (ii) will be read as:-

A candidate securing a minimum of CGPA 4.00 but fails to secure a minimum CGPA 7.5 after 6th semester end examination may re-appear at the 5th or 6th Semester End Examinations or both, at the immediate next available chances within the stipulated period of time to obtain a minimum CGPA of 7.5

In case such candidates fail to obtain a minimum CGPA 7.5 the previous status (the status at the end of 6th semester) based on the previous aggregate shall be retained.

Prayer for such re appearance shall be intimated to the Controller of Examinations within 10 working days from publication of result of 6th Semester End examination.

Explanation under Clause no. 15 will be read as:-

Explanation :-

Candidates not eligible/ not enrolling for an odd Semester End examination will be eligible to join the next successive even semester classes and appear at the respective examinations, if otherwise eligible. However, such candidates shall have to join and enroll the odd semester class and will appear at the corresponding odd Semester End examination (for which they were previously not eligible or not enrolled) before joining the next higher odd semester classes excluding semester 7th and 8th.

Similarly, Candidates not eligible/ not enrolling for an even Semester End examination will be eligible to join the next successive odd semester classes and appear at the respective examinations, if otherwise eligible. However, such candidates shall have to join and enroll the even semester class and will appear at the corresponding even Semester End examination (for which they were previously not eligible or not enrolled) before joining the next higher even semester classes excluding semester 7th and 8th.

Clause no. 19 (iii) will be read as:-

A candidate shall be allowed to apply for re-examination/ review of not more than 2(two) Theoretical papers/ component of papers in each Semester End i.e. Core, Minor and SEC taken together, provided that he/she has scored qualifying marks, i.e., 30% in the remaining papers of that Semester End examination.

Marks awarded on re-examination will be taken as the marks obtained by the candidate in that paper, provided, however, if on re-examination the marks get enhanced by more than 15% or get reduced by more than 5% compare to the marks obtained by the candidate previously (percentage will be calculated on the basis of the full marks of the theoretical component of that paper) the script of the said paper will be referred to the third examiner. Among the marks awarded by three examiners, i.e., original examiner, second examiner (re-examiner) and the third examiner, the average of the top two closer marks obtained will be awarded.

Revised marks will be given effect, provided it does not lead to lowering of Letter Grade.

❖ For Examination Regulations of Three-year B.A./B.Sc. (MDC) Courses of Studies (CSR/43/2023, dt. 18.12.2023):

Explanation under Clause no. 12 (ii) will be read as:-

Explanation :-

Candidates not eligible/ not enrolling for an odd Semester End examination will be eligible to join the next successive even semester classes and appear at the respective examinations, if otherwise eligible. However, such candidates shall have to join and enroll the odd semester class and will appear at the corresponding odd Semester End examination (for which they were previously not eligible or not enrolled) before joining the next higher odd semester classes.

Similarly, Candidates not eligible/ not enrolling for an even Semester End examination will be eligible to join the next successive odd semester classes and appear at the respective examinations, if otherwise eligible. However, such candidates shall have to join and enroll the even semester class and will appear at the corresponding even Semester End examination (for which they were previously not eligible or not enrolled) before joining the next higher even semester classes.

Clause no. 16 (iii) will be read as:-

A candidate shall be allowed to apply for re-examination/ review of not more than 2(two) Theoretical papers/ component of papers in each Semester End i.e. Core, Minor taken together, provided that he/she has scored qualifying marks, i.e., 30% in the remaining papers of that Semester.

Marks awarded on re-examination will be taken as the marks obtained by the candidate in that paper, provided, however, if on re-examination the marks get enhanced by more than 15% or get reduced by more than 5% compared to the marks obtained by the candidate previously (percentage will be calculated on the basis of the full marks of the theoretical component of that paper) the script of the said paper will be referred to the third examiner. Among the marks awarded by three examiners, i.e., original examiner, second examiner (re-examiner) and the third examiner, the average of the top two closer marks obtained will be awarded.

Revised marks will be given effect, provided it does not lead to lowering of Letter Grade.

❖ For Examination Regulations of Four-year B.Com. (Honours & Honours with Research) and 3-year B.Com. Courses of Studies (CSR/46/2023, dt. 18.12.2023):

Clause no. 13 (ii) will be read as:-

If a candidate secures a minimum of CGPA of 4.00 but fails to secure a minimum CGPA of 7.5 may re-appear at the 5th or 6th Semester-end Examinations or both, at the immediate next available chances within the stipulated period of time to obtain a minimum CGPA of 7.5 for joining Honours with Research Course in 7th and 8th Semesters of the 4-year Programme.

In case such candidates fail to obtain a minimum CGPA of 7.5 the previous status at the end of 6th semester based on the previous aggregate shall be retained.

Prayer for such re appearance shall be intimated to the Controller of Examinations within 10 working days from publication of result of 6th Semester End examination.

Explanation under Clause no. 15 will be read as:-

Candidates not eligible/ not enrolling for an Odd Semester Examination will be allowed to join the next successive Even Semester Classes and appear at the respective examinations, if otherwise eligible. However, such candidates shall have to enroll and join the Odd Semester Classes and will appear at the corresponding Odd Semester Examination (for which they were previously not eligible or not enrolled) before joining the next higher Odd Semester Classes.

For example, if a candidate becomes ineligible or if he /she does enroll for Semester I Examination, he / she shall be allowed to join the classes of Semester II and also shall be allowed to appear in Semester II Examination, if otherwise eligible, but he/she shall have to enroll and join the Semester I Classes and appear in Semester I Examination before joining Semester III Classes. However, the candidates shall not be allowed to join classes in the 7th Semester of the 4-year Programme unless they clear all the first Six Semesters with CGPA of 4.00 and above.

Similarly, candidates not eligible/ not enrolling for an Even Semester-end Examination will be allowed to join the next successive Odd Semester classes and appear at the respective examinations, if otherwise eligible. However, such candidates shall have to enroll and join the Even Semester class and will appear at the corresponding Even Semester-end examination (for which they were previously not eligible or not enrolled) before joining the next higher even Semester Classes. However, the candidates shall not be allowed to join classes in the 7th Semester of the 4-year Programme unless they clear the first Six Semesters with CGPA of 4.00 and above.

Clause no. 20 (iii) will be read as:-

A candidate shall be allowed to apply for re-examination/review of not more than 2(two) Theoretical Paper(s)/ Theoretical Component of Paper(s), i.e. DSC (Major/Core), Minor & SEC for 4-year programme and MDC (Core/Major), Minor and SEC for 3-year programme, taken together, within the University notified date after publication of results of the Semester-end Examination provided that he/she has secured qualifying marks, i.e., 30%, in the remaining papers of the concerned Semester-end Examination.

Marks awarded on re-examination will be taken as the marks obtained by the candidate in that paper, provided, however, if on re-examination the marks get enhanced by more than 15% or get reduced by more than 5% compared to the marks obtained by the candidate previously (percentage will be calculated on the basis of the full marks of the theoretical component of that paper) the answer script of the said paper will be referred to the third examiner. Among the marks awarded by three examiners, i.e., original examiner, second examiner (re-examiner) and the third examiner, the average of the top two closer marks obtained will be awarded.

Revised marks will be given effect, provided it does not lead to lowering of Letter Grade.

❖ For Examination Regulations of Four-year B.A./ B.Sc./ B.Com. (Honours with a core vocational subject) Courses of Studies (CSR/44/2023, dt. 18.12.2023):

Clause no. 11 (ii) will be read as:-

If a candidate secures qualifying marks in all the papers of the first six semester examinations and secure a minimum of CGPA 4.000, will get a Three-year B.A./B.Sc./B.Com. (Honours with a core Vocational subject) degree as the case may be, provided the candidate also completes a 3 credit internship .

However, such candidates failing to secure CGPA 4.0 may re-appear at the 5th or 6th Semester End Examinations or both, at the immediate next available chances within the stipulated period of time to obtain a minimum CGPA of 4.00.

Prayer for such re appearance shall be intimated to the Controller of Examinations within 10 working days from publication of result of 6th Semester End examination.

Explanation: Completion of internship shall mean undertaking of the internship and securing qualifying marks at the evaluation of internship.

Clause no. 13 (ii) will be read as:-

Explanation :-
