

Calcutta University
Department of Pure Mathematics
35, Ballygunge Circular Road, Kolkata 700019
Advertisement for Project Scientist

Walk in Interview

Walk-in Interview is to be held at the Department of Pure Mathematics, University of Calcutta to fill up the post of One Junior Research Fellow in the DRDO, Government of India funded research Project entitled "Detection of an Unknown Stream Cipher and Recovery of its Embedded Keys Through Cryptanalysis of a Class of Iterative Ciphers Using Fault Analysis" under the supervision of Dr Avishek Adhikari, Department of Pure Mathematics, Calcutta University.

Tenure of the Project is up to 11th September, 2020.

No. of Post : One.

Qualification required: Consistently good academic record with 1st Class Master Degree (in Mathematics/Computer Science/ Information Technology), preferably having M. Tech in IT/ CSE degree with knowledge on Security analysis using FPGA.

Age limit : 35 years as on 01-01-2018.

Remuneration : Rs. 25,000/- p.m. (Consolidated).

Date and Time of Interview: 12:00 noon on October 10, 2018.

Place: Department of Pure Mathematics, University of Calcutta 35 Ballygunge Circular Road. Kolkata: 700019

Applications for the above mentioned post are invited in a plain paper. Candidates are required to appear in a Walk in Interview along with the application, two sets of bio data, all original testimonials along with the photocopies of all self-attested supporting documents.

Candidates will have to attend the interview at their own cost.

Dr Avishek Adhikari
Principal Investigator of the Project
Department of Pure Mathematics
University of Calcutta

Assistant Professor
Department of Pure Mathematics
University of Calcutta